Newark High School is a panorama, a series of constantly changing scenes and events. These scenes and events are played out daily at our Woodside Center, White Field, and over the approximately forty-two acre campus. In addition to the activities involving clubs and organizations, the number of sports open to its young men and women, the wide variety of courses offered by its faculty and administration, the support given by the community as advertisers and patrons, the faces of its classes of '79, '80 and '81, a panorama of other additional events unfold throughout the school year. Consider the following as examples:

The theme of this year's Homecoming was "An Evening in Camelot." Back in the times of King Arthur, teams jousted to find out who was best. On October 27, the Marietta Tigers invaded the battlegrounds of NHS and defeated us on the field of football by a score of 17-14. Other activities in "Camelot" were the crowning of Turb Black as king and Tami Mellars as queen of the festivities. The senior float won the float contest, but later was disqualified because of obscenities, so the junior float was declared the winner. On Saturday evening, the lords and ladies of NHS danced to the sounds of the New Image in the grand hall of the gymnasium.

"All My Sons" by Arthur Miller dealt with the Keller and Deever families. During the war Joe Keller and Herbert Deever ran a machine shop which made airplane parts. Deever was sent to prison because the firm turned out defective airplanes causing the death of many pilots. Keller went free and made a lot of money. George Deever, Herbert's son, came home from the war to find his father in prison and his father's partner free. The climax showing the reactions of a son to his guilty father is a fitting conclusion to the play.

"The Matchmaker" by Thornton Wilder told the story of Horace Vandergelder, an old Merchant of Yonkers, who is now so rich he decides to make a wife. He hires a matchmaker, a woman called Dolly Levi. After while, Horace finds himself wanting the matchmaker herself. He who was so shrewd before is now like putty in the hands of Dolly Levi.

"Guys and Dolls," a musical fable of Broadway, was presented at NHS on February 23-24. Much of the appeal of this play was due to the ingenious intertwining of the four plots in one: Sarah Brown's "Save-a-Soul Mission" near Times Square; the prevailing crap games initiated by Nathan Detroit and his cronies; Miss Adelaide, singer at the Hot Box and 14-year fiancée of Nathan Detroit; and Sky Masterson, notorious gambler from Havana, who tries his luck with Sarah Brown. In the end, happiness prevailed over sadness and goodness conquered evil. Parts in the play were performed by Mike Noble, Mike Thomas, Glenn Henry, Mary Hepsworth, Jeff Kinder, Kay Glaser, Beth Claggett, Bob Bickmire, Jeff Simross, Dave Biros, Tracy Mayhew, Al English, Betsy Brown, Kent Anderson, Granger Green, Scott Warrick, Glenn Pettit, Jay Barker, Risa Varasso, Todd Sullivan, Dave McCandlish, Jenny McConnell, Connie Larson, and Ken Shaw.

The "Ten Little Indians" refer to the cluster of statuettes on the mantel piece of a wierd country house off the coast of Devon. Eight assorted guests are invited for a weekend by a mysterious host. The guests have never met each other nor have they met their host. While the guests are having dinner, a voice comes out of the air and accuses everyone including the housekeeper and the butler of murder, not the sort of murder on which a conviction can be had in court but murder just the same. While they are talking, one of the ten little Indian statuettes falls from the mantelpiece, immediately after one of the guests is poisoned. One down, nine to go.

International Field Studies provides field study programs such as the Carter Caves spelunking trip, the Andros Island scuba and skin diving trip, and the summer field ecology course to the Western United States. Those who participated are Todd Chrisman, Coleen Finkle, Janet Geiger, Jeff Gilliam, Mike McKee, Mike Metille, Lisa Mettes, Ann Morey, Steve Noffsinger, Karen Richards, Tracy Richards, Sue Sitler, Teri Steiff, Chris Roberts, Charlene Roberts, and Linda Tetters. Advisors are Larry Roberts, Steve Holekamp, and Glenn McGregor. During spring break, the IFS group along with other students went to Andros Island in the Bahamas for a week of skin and scuba diving. Students from NHS included: Jeannette Parker, Sandy Burtenshaw, Debbie Waller, Ramon DaCasa, Heidi Greulich, Michele Williams, Dianne Adams, Ruth Finney, Todd Lipphardt, Hilmar Gunnerson, Scott Reid, Doug Miller, Rinus Vermue, Dave Fayerweather, John Sakal, Hillary Fluker, Mike Nethers, Ruth Olson, Joe Barnaba, Per Cederberg, Juan Galvan, James Booth, Tami Neighbarger, Sandy Davis, Jana Diederon, Amy Nethers, Dianne Leach, Kay Glaser, Tod Lombardo, Charles Booty, Mason Chambers, and Lloyd Lambright.

Janet and Rod Smith took a group of nineteen students to Italy during spring vacation. The group landed in Milan and then visited Venice, Florence, Pisa, Perugia, Rome, Naples, and Pompeii. Making the trip were: Jim Atkinson, Todd Baker, Doug Brough, Irene Bulas, Gayle Chandler, Keith Edwards, Kim Ferguson, Kellie Gibson, Teri Good, Laurie Gottman, Ann Hill, Carrie McCord, Mike Noble, Jay Owens, Vanessa Tarter, Carey Weaver, Kerrie Whitaker, Becky Wolfe, and Tami Woodburn.

Nineteen NHS students, as well as three students from Newark Catholic, traveled to France during spring break. They were accompanied by Gayle and Jim Gorius. The group visited Paris, Angers, Chartres, Mont Saint-Michel, St. Malo, and the Chateaux of the Loire Valley. Participants from NHS included: Lucinda Bartlett, Nancy Cobb, Larry Dean, Charles Eagle, Dan Franklin, Michele Friel, Susan LeFevre, Kim Magerkurth, Mike Pape, Brian Pargeon, Trish Sanders, Jennie Schneider, Julie Siegel, Chris Stassen, Tammie Stemm, Elaine Swartz, Sam Thomson, Lisa VanAtta and Jeff Wills.

On Saturday, May 12, from 9:00-12:00 the place to have been was the Sheraton Inn. Students danced to the sounds of "Free." The theme for this year's Prom was "Color My World" from the song of the same name. The queen of this year's Prom was Debbie Poulton. Her court consisted of Tami Mellars, Toni Sforza, Phoebe Steiner, and Lori Clark.

If you went to the Senior After-Prom, you probably thought you were in a Las Vegas Casino. While listening to the music of the group "Stutz," you could have played such games as roulette, black jack or craps. The play money could be used later at an auction. Other activites, as well as food, were also available.

The Junior After-Prom this year was held in the gym of the YMCA. Leon Spencer was the disc jockey throughout the evening. He gave out door prizes such as records and passes to Pizza Hut. Students danced, played bingo, threw darts and played a game guessing the identification of baby pictures from members of the class.

Every year exchange students come to NHS from different parts of the world such as Mexico, Germany, France, Japan, and Finland. This year NHS had eleven exchange students.

FRONT ROW: Jacob Meyer — West Germany; Nayumi Kaukogurki — Japan; Anne Elo — Finland; Misotto Shiroishi — Japan; Frederic O'Leary — France.

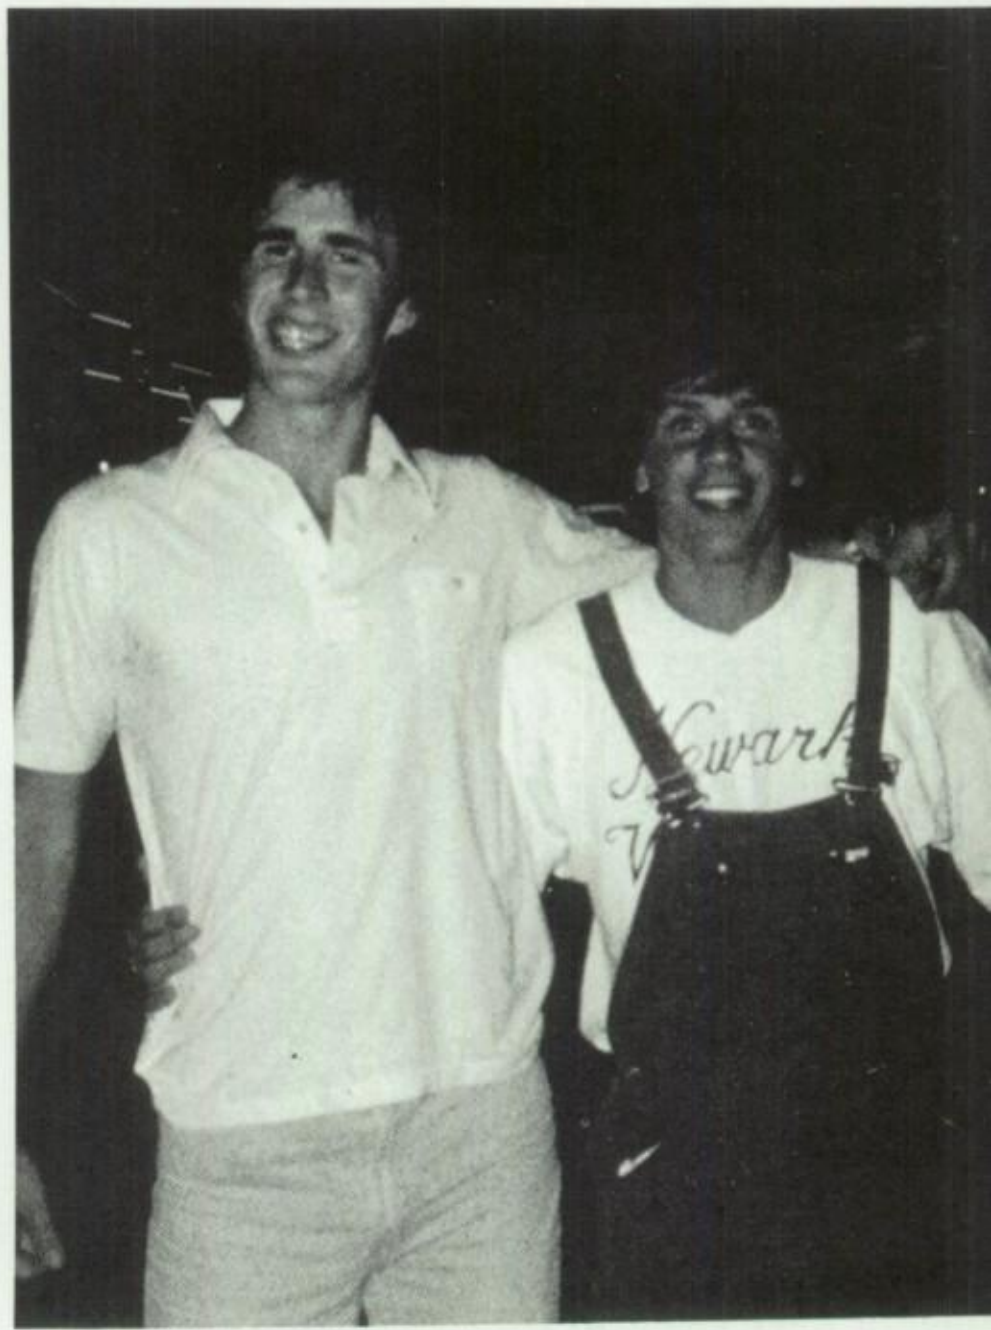

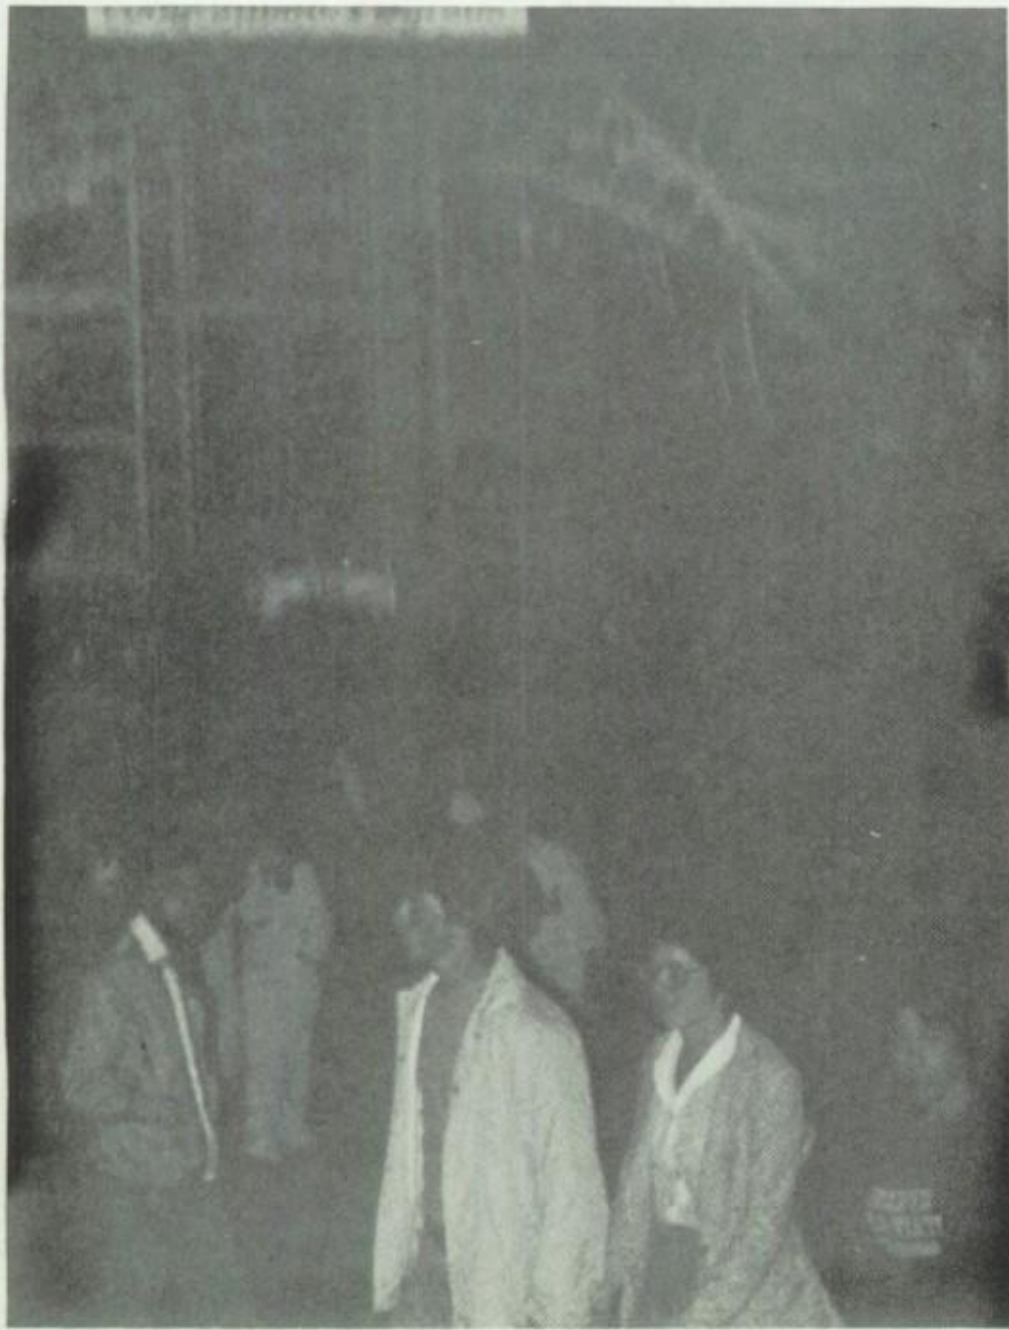

BACK ROW: Hilmar Gunnarsson — Iceland; Per Cederberg — Sweden; Ramon DaCasa — Mexico; Rinus Vermue — Netherlands; Mika Rytokoski — Finland.

On May 16, 1979, the senior class presented the traditional Senior Assembly. This year the program was organized by seniors Jim Atkinson, Tori Ingram, and Mikki Outlaw. Most of the talent was centered around music. The acts included everything from an imitation of Sha-Na-Na to an outstanding demonstration of dueling banjos by Chris Nelson and Jeff McElwee. Vocal presentations were given as solos and duets. Seniors in the Wildcatettes presented a dance routine.

The end of the school year is a great time for seniors with Senior Grad Night and the Commencement ceremonies. On May 18 the seniors went to King's Island, where they rode rides and listened to the Pointer Sisters from 10 p.m. till 4 a.m. The Commencement ceremony was held on Sunday June 10. Six hundred sixty seniors graduated, many with honors. The senior's motto was "The sun will always shine on the class of '79", their flower was the red rose and their colors were scarlet and white.

Reflections

Newark's RESIDENT ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION (REE) program was certainly not unlucky going into its thirteenth year this spring, as 134 juniors and seniors participated in the program as counselors. Over 300 people applied, and those chosen spent 30 classroom hours in R.E.E. Counselor Training taught by Miss Kathleen J. Fortman, Environmental Education and Camp Director. Between 17 and 21 counselors then attended LUTHERAN MEMORIAL CAMP each of seven weeks between March 19 — May 11, 1979, to serve as cabin counselors for sixth grade students. These counselors also served as habitat study teachers during one of five classes (forest, pond, stream, orienteering, and wilderness survival) held several times during the week.

The 1979 KEY CLUB was a service organization designed to promote leadership and initiative through school and community service projects. There were twelve members on the IN-THE-KNOW team, advised by Mr. Ken Johnston. These talented members competed for academic recognition while enhancing NHS in the In-The-Know Show in Columbus. To Mr. Johnston's way of thinking, all you need is a quick mind and a faster finger to be a member. They usually had meetings Wednesday afternoon and Sunday evenings.

The E-TV crew of '78-'79, advised by Mr. Hubbell did an excellent job of operating the closed-circuit T.V. and C.A.T.V. Educational System for N.H.S. The services performed by the members of this crew included recording different educational programs, operating T.V. equipment and maintaining good working condition of these machines. The E-TV crew was not an organized club, but a group consisting of students willing to sacrifice time, energy, and study hall time in order to serve the school.

WHITE FIELD . . . This year's Varsity football squad had an excellent season with a superb record of eight wins and two losses, resulting from a total team effort and great team attitude. The squad hit the gridiron with a high amount of competitiveness and a better defense and kicking game than before. Coach Bill Biggers, who has coached seven years, two at N.H.S., truly enjoyed coaching such a successful team, with each athlete putting forth his best effort. All of the team's competitors were tough but two of the most formidable were the Zanesville Blue Devils and the Toledo Whitmer Panthers. Although they lost to the Blue Devils, they had a thrilling victory over the Panthers on Toledo's home field, 7-0.

The Wildcat defense huddles for the next strategy.

This year's starting team received many awards for outstanding sportsmanship. Heading the list was co-captain Ken Black. Ken was on the first team for All-C.O.L. He was nominated for All-Central District team and was on the second team for All-Ohio. Ken was also selected to play in the North-South High School All-Star Game. Co-captain Martin Cagney was also on the first team All-C.O.L. He was also elected to the All-Central District team and selected for the second team All-Ohio.

Mark Butler was nominated on the second team in the All-C.O.L. category. He also made the All-Central District and second team for All-Ohio.

Buster Owens and Scott Allen both made it onto the All-C.O.L. first team and the second team for All-District while Mike Noble and Dave Wetzel made the second team All-C.O.L.

WHITE FIELD . . . The Wildcat Reserve football team overcame two major obstacles — the first year of playing together and a completely new system of playing. The element that most helped was the players' desires to learn the new system and attempt to do their best when called upon. Coach Grindrod, one of the coaches, thoroughly enjoyed coaching. The Wildkittens biggest win was against Grove City, although the disappointment came when the team lost its last game against Upper Arlington.

Everybody lettered this season, but clearly outstanding players were: Kelly Bourne, Trent Johnson, Bob German, Charles Van Voorhis, and Bob Weisent.

MOUNDBUILDERS COUNTRY CLUB . . . This year's golf team was very competitive with a record of 31 wins, 26 losses and two ties. Golf coach Jerry Hatcher, in his third year of coaching at NHS, felt his team had their share of on-and-off days, and he felt that because they have an excellent home course that they should do better in the future.

Don Dawson was the team's most valuable player with an average score of 39.33 for nine holes per meet and placed second in the Chillicothe Invitational and second in the C.O.L. Other lettermen included Steve Underwood, Marc Scarrett, Randy Beeney, and Greg Garrett. Returning next year, but equally impressive were sophomores Dave Luecke, Jeff Barber and Steve Bachelor. The golf team's biggest win was at the Chillicothe Invitational where they placed seventh out of twenty teams.

NHS CAMPUS . . . This year's cross-country team did excellent for a team which had no previous experience with a dual record of three wins and three losses. But someone who had experience was Coach Phil Torrens. He has been coaching for eleven years, six at NHS, and he greatly enjoyed coaching cross-country which he considered a fun sport.

This year's outstanding runners were sophomore Scott Bolz and junior Kevin Watkins. Kevin placed ninth in the All-COL meet and Scott qualified for the district tournament. Other lettermen included juniors Jim Pitt, John Sakal, and Lynn Lehman; sophomores John Spring and John Kreager. Also on the team but equally impressive were Jeff Good, Jeff Kreager, Corby Darling, and Doug David.

NEWARK HIGH SCHOOL TENNIS COURTS . . .

This year's girl's tennis team had a fun year and they enjoyed the competition other teams gave them. And to play for enjoyment rather than "going for blood" was tennis coach Janet Smith's prime objective this year. Her girls were hard workers and did their best in all competitions.

This year's outstanding performers were Cendy Rocco and Lucy Mitchell, with Cendy Rocco making it to the state tournament, the first time ever for an NHS competitor. Cendy also won the district tournament. The girls who lettered were Carolyn Zolo, Cendy Rocco, Lucy Mitchell, Cassie Coffman, Lori Bline, and Mindy McFadden. Also on the team were Dianne Adams and Vickie Jones.

RESERVE: Tracy Chapman, Susan LeFevre, Cindy Daugherty, Robin Bagent, Elaine Swartz, Debbie Dougherty, Sherrie Davis.

NHS GYMNASIUM . . . The 1978-1979 girls volleyball team did excellent. They went all the way to the C.O.L., but the lack of experience hurt them most in the tournament. This year's team was very young, but they were much better power hitters. Coach Sheila Hiles, who has been coaching for nine years, three of them here at NHS, totally enjoyed the job of coaching a winning team.

The most outstanding players this year were all on the starting team: sophomores — Paula McKee, Tammy Jones, Caroline Gaulke; juniors — Teri Good and Marci Utrevis; senior — Tina Cook. In addition, Kathy Brush lettered.

This year's toughest competitor was Hilliard in the tournaments. Newark lost, but not without showing the victors a taste of their tough competitiveness.

SECOND ROW: Sally McCrory, Debbie Jones, Tammy Randles, Vickie McCullough, Donna Sunkle, Kim Burrell, Debbie Trager.

This opponent seems to feel he has to fly to keep Wildcat John Maloney under guard.

NHS GYMNASIUM . . . Success was the key factor for the NHS basketball team as they made their way to the district finals held at the Fairgrounds Coliseum. The team lost in the finals to Linden McKinley, after a long hard battle, with a score of 64 to 49.

Coach Gary Walters felt that the players were very hard working and dedicated young men, and, when combined with one of the best schedules in Ohio, created an absolutely invincible team. Mike Peddicord, Ken Black, Vince Wollenburg, and John Maloney were the outstanding ball players this season.

Deciding who to throw the ball to is a crucial decision as the look on Vince Wollenburg's face clearly indicates.

Mike Peddicord makes a spectacular and somewhat comical bid for the ball in this under-the-basket battle.

The Boys Reserve Basketball team had an excellent season this year. According to Coach Tom Young, in his first year at NHS, the team worked hard all year and it finally paid off with a successful season. Their hardest competition was Upper Arlington. They won after a close game, not just once, but twice! Coach Young commented, "Some players will go on to play varsity. For others, this was their last year of basketball, and I hope it was a worthwhile experience."

Superstretch Jim McNutt reaches for the jumpball as the crowd chants "McNutt, McNutt, we want McNutt!"

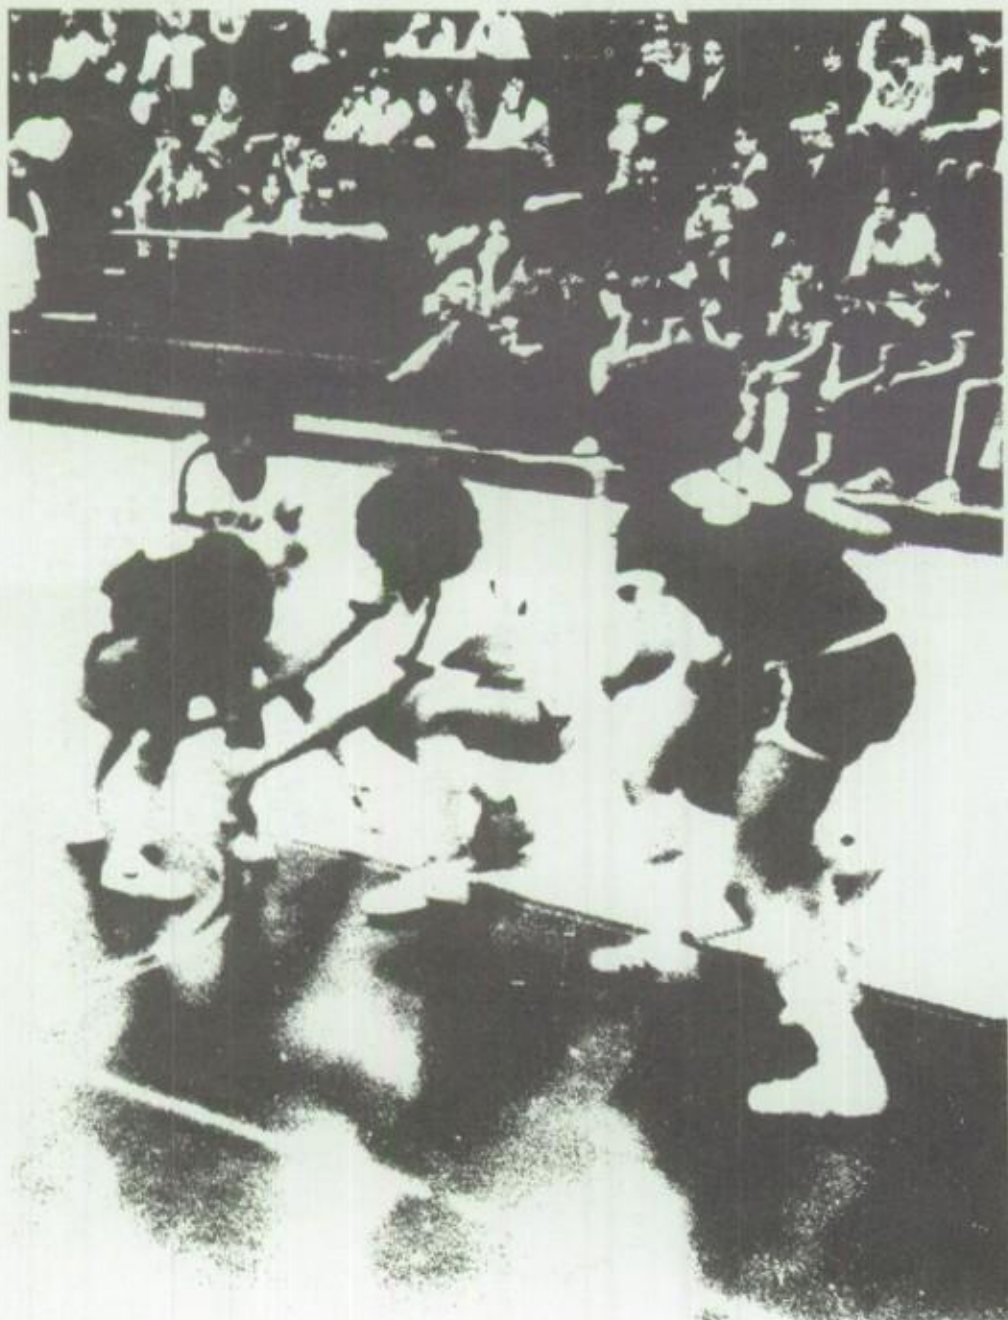

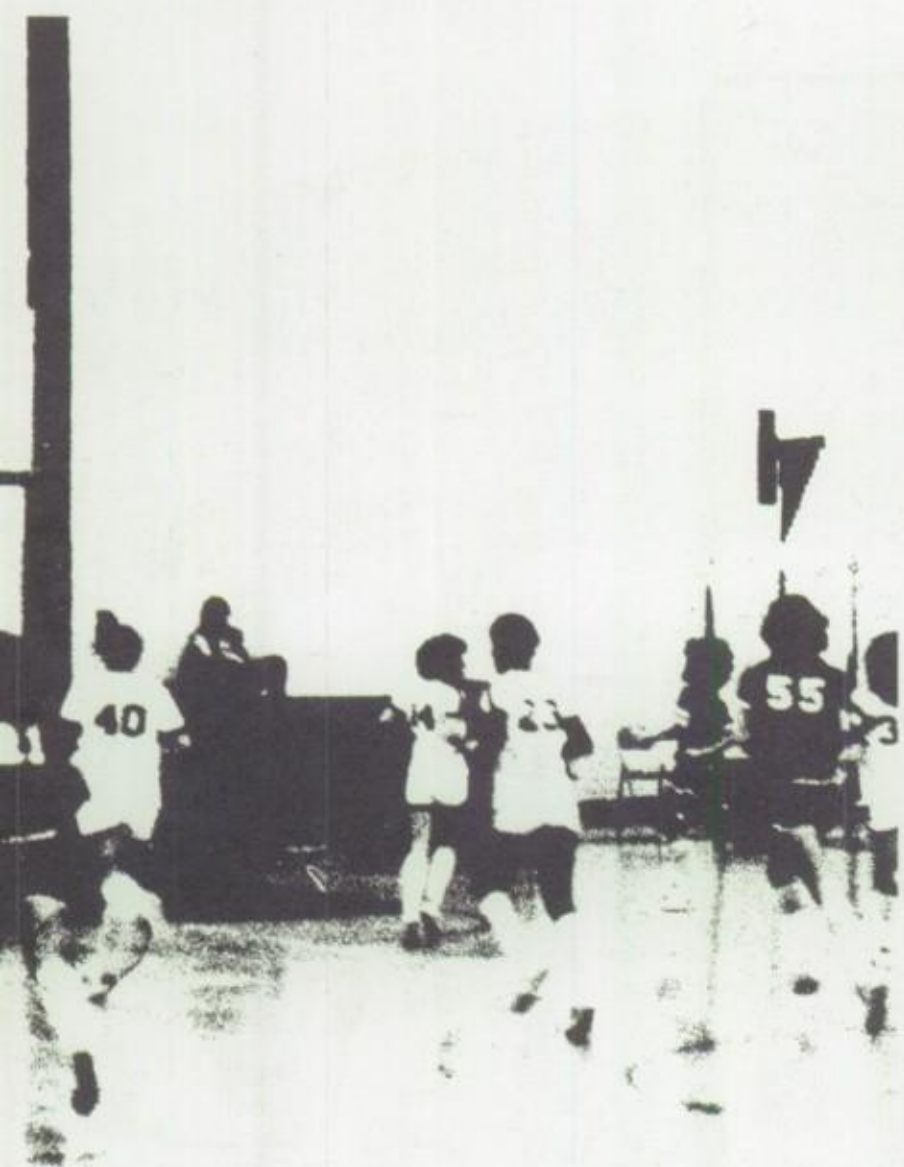

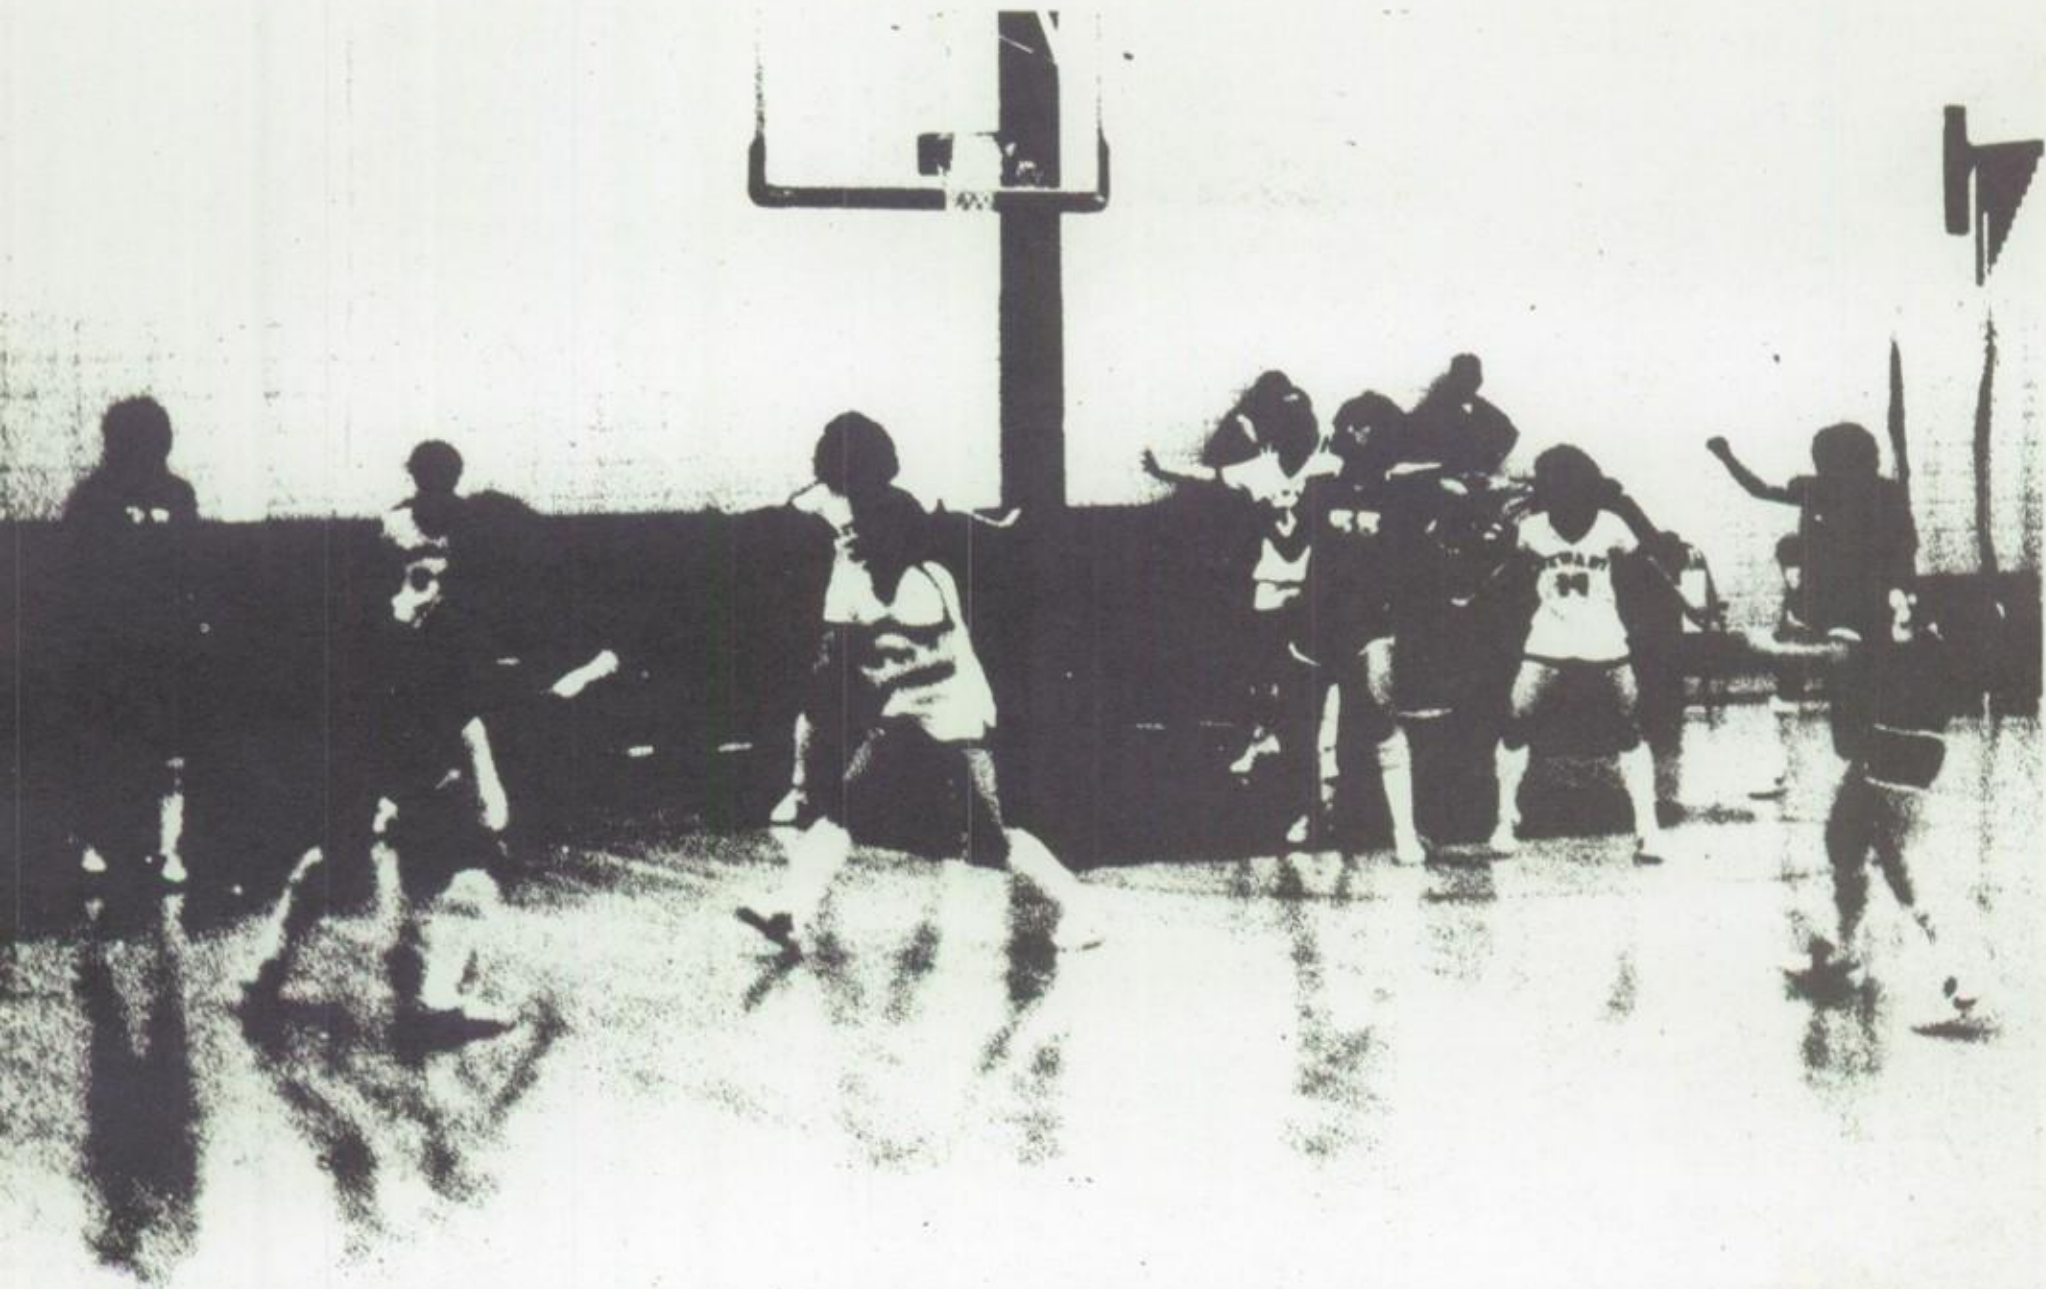

A spectacular season seemed to be the fate of the Girl's Reserve Basketball team this year with a final record of 18-0. First year NHS coach Ruth Sunkle felt that the team started out with the advantage because all the players had a lot of experience from the junior highs. They have a lot of promise and Sunkle believes most of them will continue on to the Varsity next year. Outstanding players this season were Carol Dolloff, Caroline Gaulke, and Mary Borgia. In addition, Les Roberts also received numbers as did the outstanding girls. It was another case of a truly outstanding job.

Basketball calls for some high jumping and Caroline Gaulke surely isn't looking away.

NHS GYMNASIUM . . .

This year's girls' basketball team was excellent as they went all the way to the regionals undefeated. At the regional finals, they lost to powerhouse Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary. Coach Marjeanne Walters was especially proud of all the girls because they played not as individuals but as a team. Working and playing together finally paid off with a spectacular season. A factor related to their great season is the fact that the team was taller than teams previous to this year, and they played many more games than last year. Those who lettered were: Marcy Utrevis, Nancy Pound, Deb Trager, Patti Wilson, Michele Moore, Leslie Turner & Tammy Jones.

FIRST ROW: Debbie Trager, Michele Moore, Nancy Pound, Teri Good, Diane Sowards, Kelly Kincaid.

Y.W.C.A. . . . Although they had a slightly disappointing season record wise, Coach Ciminello optimistically felt that the N.H.S. swim team was fairly successful because they improved with each meet and will continue to do so in the future. Competitiveness also increased throughout the season as they opposed such formidable teams as Columbus Northland, their hardest fought meet, which ended in a very closely played victory for Columbus, 48-34. The swim team did win against Zanesville Rosecrans 46-36. Team Member Rod Lake described the meet as "very exciting! Everyone was sure we were going to win. Everyone was absolutely excited."

Some of the outstanding swimmers this year were senior Rocky Smith, junior Mike Starn, and sophomore Dan Coakley. Rocky was given several awards this year including Most Valuable Player, 2nd place in District meet, first in the COL meet, and placing 19th in the All State finals. Lettermen included: Rocky Smith, Bob Baker, Scott Gillenwater, Mike Molder. Also, Dan Coakley, Dave Fayerweather, Sheri Howard, Jeff Llewellyn, Jon Mayhew, Mike Starn, Ramon DaCasa, Rinus Vermue, and Manager Doug Carman.

NHS GYM . . . The superior Newark Matcats had an excellent season as they became the C.O.L. champions. A combination of team attitude, experience and talent formed a truly fine team. Opposing the toughest teams in the District, the team came out on top in almost every meet. Scott Allen and Dave Buena were outstanding performers this year; both placed first in their respective classes at the C.O.L. meet, and third and second, respectively, at the District level. Dave was also a state qualifier. Both were named most valuable players on the reserve team and Gary Disbennet on the reserve team. The most improved performer was Tom Pastorius. Following this successful season, Coach Jerry Hatcher is looking forward to next season.

WHITE FIELD The NHS boy's track did exceptionally well this season, although not up to early expectations. They opposed such powerhouse teams as Upper Arlington and Lancaster.

Coach Torrens feels that next year's team should be good with several returning lettermen.

Outstanding performers this season were Tyler Johnson, Mark Utrevis, Ken Black, Brad Prugh, and Kevin Watkins.

WHITE FIELD . . . An excellent season and hard work described the girl's track team. The team finished second in the C.O.L. meet and eleventh in the district out of thirty-six teams, an excellent achievement for a squad consisting mostly of sophomores and juniors.

Outstanding performers were Rachel Choice, Carolyn Gaulke, Lee McCrillis, Cheryl Spangler, and Debbie Vanko. FRONT ROW: Coach Sunkle, Cheryl Spangler, Caroline Gaulke, Mindy McFadden, Debbie Vanko, Kay Glaser, Linda Main.

BASEBALL FIELD . . .

This year's girls' softball team coached by Sheila Hiles and student teacher Coleen Prater had a record of 16-4. This year's most valuable players were: Kim Ferguson-Sr. and Patti Wilson-Jr. Mrs. Hiles who has coached softball for two years says the biggest disappointment was not returning to state. The team was C.O.L. champs and District runner-up. Everyone on the team lettered. Losing only two seniors, the team will be prepared for next year's season.

BASEBALL FIELD . . .

This year's Varsity Baseball team did well, with a record of 12 wins and 12 losses. Their hardest competition was Marietta who defeated them twice. Their biggest win was against Hilliard. The team, Coach Neff feels, had superior pitching but could have used better batting.

BASEBALL FIELD . . .

N.H.S.'s Reserve Boys' Baseball team did exceptionally well this season with a record of 16-6. Coach Bill Rogers really felt good about the team; he felt the team's speed was much better this year. The pitching really came on toward the middle of the season, and the running speed was a big asset. Everyone received numerals, but the most outstanding performers were: Jim Ritchey, with a batting average of .344, Ron Gabbey; Ron Blake .296, and Dave Bower .293. Their biggest win was a doubleheader victory over Worthington, who were 7-2 at the time. And their biggest disappointment was a double-header loss to Grove City.

Unidentified Wildcat runner slides into third base.
Harry Shannon leads off second base.
Coach Gary Vermilion quietly contemplates the ball's curious actions.

TENNIS COURTS . . .

This year's N.H.S. Boy's Tennis Team was very competitive. First year tennis coach Richard Lusetti felt that practicing indoors during the winter helped the most this season. Their hardest competition was Upper Arlington and Lancaster. Most outstanding performers were Steve Nikolovski and Warren Koontz.

Lettermen include: Steve Nikolovski, Warren Koontz, Charles Koontz, Johnny John, Steve Carpenter, Rob Bulas, and Dan Coakley.

Steve Nilolovski really stretches for the ball.

Warren Koontz, one of the team's most valuable assets, shows an excellent forehand return form.

Johnny John power-hits the tennis ball.

VARSITY: TOP: Lynn Heatwole.
MIDDLE: Teri Taylor, Lisa Clark.
BOTTOM: Linda Serfozo, Cendy Rocco, Kai Weaver.
FRONT: Kim Magerkurth.
RESERVE: TOP: Cindy Steele, Molly Smith.
BOTTOM: Kim Street, Julie Johnson, Risa Varasso, Karen Smith.

EVERYWHERE . . . The Cheerleaders were busy this year leading the crowds into burst of noise to cheer the teams on to victory and to console those who lost. Mrs. Marijeanne Walters advised the girls in learning cheers. The N.H.S. cheerleaders did what they do best, make the games more fun.

WITH 2 PLANTS TO SERVE YOU

Since this was my first and only year as editor of the Newark High School Reveille Yearbook, I guess it went fairly well. At the beginning we had many problems, not the least of which was changing publication companies four months after the school year began. Few people, with the exception of the yearbook staff itself, can understand how complicated a decision this can be. More than forty pages of the book had to be redone totally. After this, the production went smoothly. I would like to thank the people who helped make this book possible: Mike McKelley, our yearbook representative from Hunter Publishing Company, who dug in and helped us out of the reorganization dilemma and has continued to help us throughout the rest of the year. Jim Wenner, for giving me the opportunity to have the magnificent position as editor. Thanks to all of the photographers for their efforts. Special thanks to Nancy Grannan and Joan Sheppard for all their extra efforts. The rest of the yearbook staff because without them this book would not have been possible. You are looking at the result of a year-long project which took teamwork by the entire staff. I wish all the luck to Co-Editors Nancy Karch and Jay Owens who I hope learn as much and have as much fun as I did. Kim Ferguson, Editor.
